2025-26 Conference Planning Committee Meeting

Franklin University - Ross Auditorium

301 E Rich St

Columbus, OH 43215

09:30 AM - 03:00 AM EST

Are you looking for a fun, meaningful way to get involved with OASFAA? Consider joining the Conference Planning Committee! This is a great opportunity—especially for new members—to get connected, build relationships across the state, and help shape one of OASFAA’s most anticipated events of the year.

As a member of the planning committee, you’ll collaborate with a dynamic team to design an engaging, relevant, and memorable conference experience. Whether you’re interested in programming, logistics, communication, or just bringing positive energy to the table, there’s a place for you. No prior experience is necessary—just a willingness to contribute and learn.

It’s a fantastic way to get more involved in the association, grow professionally, and have a little fun along the way. Come join us and help make the next conference the best one yet!

NASFAA's accredited Certified Financial Aid Administrator® Program awards the FAAC® designation. Financial aid administrators like you work diligently to uphold the integrity of student aid programs. This certification program acknowledges your critical role in your institution's success and enhances your professional credibility. Earning the FAAC® designation:

Advances and elevates the profession.

Inspires quality job performance.

Creates a competitive edge.

Join facilitators Paige Kiley, FAAC® (Edison State Community College) and Carrie Short, FAAC® (Baldwin Wallace University) at BW on Wednesday, 11/19. Participants will use a suite of workshop materials already prepared by a team of practicing financial aid administrators who hold the FAAC® designation. Participants will leave the workshop with greater confidence in their own readiness and knowledge of what to expect when they take the exam.
